TROMA ENTERTAINMENT takes over the Hollywood Theatre for the Oregon premiere of THE CURSE OF THE WEREDEER

"It's like Bambi, but different." - Lloyd Kaufman, Producer and Cult-Movie Icon

"It's the greatest movie I haven't seen yet." - Uwe Boll, Director

Troma Entertainment is proud to bring you the first Oregon screening of THE CURSE OF THE WEREDEER on Saturday, December 7th at 9:30PM at the Hollywood Theatre. Prepare yourself for a raunchy and filthy good time with some familiar Troma faces all centered around the dreaded "Weredeer." Wear your FLANNELS, TRUCKER HATS, and REINDEER ANTLERS!

"I'm a product of the video store generation," said the director Ben Johnson, "And that oval Troma logo meant something to me. No matter the title, I knew what I was getting when I saw it on a box. It still means something to me and I wanted my first feature film to be a Troma movie. As for who should come out for the show... LITERALLY EVERYONE! We didn't spend 14 hours a day in the woods to have no one watch the movie! Curse of the Weredeer has something for everyone: Gore! Nudity! Deer Puns! Wholesome Messaging! A Love Story!"

Director Ben Johnson will be present for the screening as a Q&A will be held after the screening of the film. There will also be merch tables and a photo opportunity with The Toxic Avenger, TOXIE himself. To start off the evening's festivities, there will be an exclusive message from Lloyd Kaufman himself and a special brand-new sneak peek at Troma's newest production THE POWER OF POSITIVE MURDER.

This event is sponsored by Hishkenstien: After Dark and hosted by Gare Scare and Wicker Sticks Sinema. There will be a teaser for Hishkenfest'25 during the event.

Tickets are $12 general admission, and discounted for Hollywood Theatre Members and can be purchased at our box office or online at:
