Tickets for THE BRUTALIST in 70mm starring Adrien Brody and Felicity Jones are now available

As the only theatre in Portland, Oregon able to present films in 70mm, the most premium viewing experience available, the Hollywood Theatre is proud to announce that tickets are now on sale for THE BRUTALIST in 70mm, starting Thursday, January 9th, 2025.

For the opening week 70mm presentation, each attendee will receive a collectible brochure and postcard set showcasing the work of László Toth, the visionary architect at the heart of the story, along with a limited-edition poster commemorating the engagement at the Hollywood.

THE BRUTALIST tells the story of visionary architect László Toth (Adrien Brody), who after escaping post-war Europe, arrives in America to rebuild his life, his work, and his marriage to his wife Erzsébet (Felicity Jones) after being forced apart during wartime by shifting borders and regimes. On his own in a strange new country, László settles in Pennsylvania, where the wealthy and prominent industrialist Harrison Lee Van Buren (Guy Pearce) recognizes his talent for building. But power and legacy come at a heavy cost.

We are able to present THE BRUTALIST in 70mm thanks in part to our successful Film Forever campaign, which raised over $80,000 to purchase two backup 35mm/70mm projectors known as Norelco AAlls. These machines are virtually identical to the projectors that were installed at the Hollywood in 1959, which are still in use today. We now have a ready supply of parts and machinery should something break down, and this backup equipment ensures that our mission of showing films on film will continue for years to come.
